

DOCTOR SERAPHICUS
ST. BONAVENTURE

CARDINAL BISHOP OF ALBANO

COMMENTARIES
ON THE FIRST BOOK OF SENTENCES

OF MASTER PETER LOMBARD

ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS

OPERA OMNIA: TOME I
ON THE ONE AND TRIUNE GOD

A Replica Translation, in English, of the Critical Latin Edition, by the Quaracchi Fathers, of 1882 A. D..

BY A FRANCISCAN BROTHER

With All accompanying Original
Prolegomena, Tabulae, Scholia and Footnotes,

Furnished with translations of
All the Variant Readings cited in the Original &

Enriched with frequent citation of
Scholastic terms in the Latin tongue

THE FRANCISCAN ARCHIVE
MANSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, USA

MMXIV

PART II

ARTICLE I: On the first impression of the image

- Question 1: Whether the reckoning of the image is attained in the memory, intelligence and will? . . . . 80
- Question 2: Whether the image is attained in these powers through their comparison to God? . . . . . 82
- Question 3: Whether memory, intelligence and will are the same in essence with the soul? . . . . . 84

ARTICLE II: On the second impression of the image

- Question 1: Whether the image is attained in mind, knowledge and love as in the powers, or in the habits, or in both simultaneously, or according to substance and habit? . . . . 88
- Question 2: Whether mind, knowledge and love have order, equality and consubstantiality? . . . 91
- Question 3: Whether the trinity of image, which consists in mind, knowledge and love, necessarily leads unto cognition of the Three Divine Persons? . . . . . 92
- DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 93

DISTINCTION IV

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 95
- Division of the Text . . . . . 96

ARTICLE I: On the comparison of the name "God" to generation and of its consignification and supposition

- Question 1: Whether this saying: "God begot God", must be conceded? . . . . . 97
- Question 2: Whether this saying can be admitted: "God generates another God"? . . . . . 99
- Question 3: Whether congruously in accord with the rules of grammar it can be said: "there are more gods"? . . . . . 101
- Question 4: Whether this name "God" substitutes for a person, and/or for a nature? . . . . 102
- DOUBTS I-IX on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 104

DISTINCTION V

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 107
- Division of the Text . . . . . 110

ARTICLE I: On the comparison of generation to the substance or essence in the reckoning of a principle

- Question 1: Whether the Substance or Essence generates? . . . . . 111
- Question 2: Whether there is to be conceded the saying, that the Son is generated from the substance of the Father? . . . . 114

ARTICLE II: On the comparison of generation to essence in the reckoning of a term

- Question 1: Whether the Substance or Essence is generated? . . . . . 116
- Question 2: Whether the Substance or Divine Essence is communicated through generation? . . 118
- DOUBTS I-XI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 119

DISTINCTION VI

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 123
- Division of the Text . . . . . 124

ARTICLE SOLE: On the generation of the Son according to its conditions

- Question 1: Whether the generation of the Son is according to a reckoning of necessity? . . 125
- Question 2: Whether the generation of the Son is according to a reckoning of will? . . . . . 127
- Question 3: Whether the generation of the Son is according to a reckoning of exemplarity? . . . . . 129
- DOUBTS I-V on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 130

DISTINCTION VII

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 132
- Division of the Text . . . . . 133
- ARTICLE SOLE: On the Power of Generating
- Question 1: Whether the power of generating means something absolute, and/or relative? . . . 134
- Question 2: Whether the power of generating is in the Son? . . . . . 138
- Question 3: Whether the power of generating and the power of creating are a unique power? . . 141
- Question 4: Whether "to be able to be generated" and "to be able to be created" are a univocal "to be able"? . 142
- DOUBTS I-VIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 144

DISTINCTION VIII

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 146

PART I

- Division of the Text . . . . . 149
- ARTICLE I: On the truth of God
- Question 1: Whether truth is a property of the Divine "to be"? . 150
- Question 2: Whether the Divine "to be" is true to such an extent, that it cannot be thought not to be? . . . . . 153
- ARTICLE II: On the immutability of God
- Question 1: Whether God is immutable? . . . . . 156
- Question 2: Whether God alone is immutable? . . . . . 158
- DOUBTS I-X on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 162

PART II

- Division of the Text . . . . . 164
- ARTICLE SOLE: On the Simplicity of God
- Question 1: Whether God is most highly simple? . . . . 165
- Question 2: Whether a most high simplicity befits God alone? . . . . . 167
- Question 3: Whether the rational soul is whole in the whole body, and whole in any part of it? . . . . . 170
- Question 4: Whether God is in any determinate genus or predicament? . . . . . 173
- DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 174

DISTINCTION IX

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 176
- Division of the Text . . . . . 179
- ARTICLE SOLE: On generation among the divine
- Question 1: Whether generation is to be posited among the divine? . . . . . 180
- Question 2: Whether among the divine generation distinguishes between the One begetting and the One begotten? . . . . . 182
- Question 3: Whether among the divine generation is eternal? . . 184
- Question 4: Whether the generation of the Son has been terminated? . . . . . 185
- DOUBTS I-XIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 187

DISTINCTION X

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 192
 Division of the Text . . . . . 194
     ARTICLE I: On the manner of the proceeding of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether among the divine there is to be posited a Person proceeding through a manner of liberality? . . . . . 194
 Question 2: Whether among the divine there is to be posited a Person proceeding through a manner of love or charity? . . . 197
 Question 3: Whether among the divine there is to be posited a third Person proceeding through a manner of mutual charity? . . . 199
     ARTICLE II: On the property of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether love or charity is proper to the Holy Spirit? . . . . . 200
 Question 2: Whether the Holy Spirit is the nexus or unity of the Father and the Son? . . . . . 202
 Question 3: Whether the Holy Spirit is properly a spirit? . . 203
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 205

DISTINCTION XI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 207
 Division of the Text . . . . . 209
     ARTICLE SOLE: On the principle of the procession of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son? . . . . . 209
 Question 2: Whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son, as from one principle? 214
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 217

DISTINCTION XII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 218
 Division of the Text . . . . . 219
     ARTICLE SOLE: On the procession of the Holy Spirit in comparison to the Father and the Son
 Question 1: Whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father before He does from the Son? . . 220
 Question 2: Whether the Holy Spirit proceeds more fully and more principally from the Father than from the Son? . . . . . 221
 Question 3: Whether the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father by means of the Son? . . 223
 Question 4: Whether the generation of the Son is prior to the spiration of the Holy Spirit, according to the reckoning of understanding? . . . . . 225
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 226

DISTINCTION XIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 228
 Division of the Text . . . . . 230
     ARTICLE SOLE: On the procession of the Holy Spirit and on the difference of procession from generation
 Question 1: Whether among the divine there is to be posited a procession? . . . . . 230
 Question 2: Whether the procession of the Holy Spirit is a generation? . . . . . 232
 Question 3: Whether the procession of the Holy Spirit differs from the generation of the Son really, and/or only according to the reckoning of understanding? . . . . . 235
 Question 4: Whether the Holy Spirit is unbegotten? . . 238
 DOUBTS I-VIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 239

DISTINCTION XIV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 242
 Division of the Text . . . . . 244
     ARTICLE I: On the temporal procession of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether a temporal procession of the Holy Spirit is to be posited? . . . . . 245
 Question 2: Whether the eternal procession of the Holy Spirit and the temporal are to be numbered as two processions? . . . 247
     ARTICLE II: On the giving of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether the Holy Spirit is given in His own Person, or whether only in effect? . . . . 249
 Question 2: Whether the Holy Spirit is given by any holy man? . . . . . 250
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 253

DISTINCTION XV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 255
     PART I
 Division of the Text . . . . . 258
         ARTICLE SOLE: On mission among the divine
 Question 1: Whether there is mission among the divine? . . 259
 Question 2: Whether mission among the divine is only on account of time, or also from eternity? . 261
 Question 3: Whether mission, passively accepted, belongs to the whole Trinity, in view of the Father? . . 262
 Question 4: Whether mission, actively accepted, belongs to the whole Trinity? . . . . . 264
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 267

PART II

Division of the Text . . . . . 269
     ARTICLE SOLE: On the invisible mission both of the Son and of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: Whether the invisible mission is according to gifts of the grace, freely given, and/or of the grace which makes one pleasing? . 270
 Question 2: Whether the Son and the Holy Spirit are said to be sent according to the same gifts of grace? . 271
 Question III: Whether the Son and the Holy Spirit are sent, when gifts of grace are augmented? . . 273
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 274

DISTINCTION XVI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 276
 Division of the Text . . . . . 277
     ARTICLE SOLE: On the visible mission of the Holy Spirit
 Question 1: What is a visible mission? . . . . . 278
 Question 2: For what is the visible mission of the Holy Spirit useful? . . . . . 280
 Question 3: In which manners does the visible mission come to be? . . . . . 283
 DOUBTS I-V on the Text of Master Peter . . . . . 285

DISTINCTION XVII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 287
     PART I
 Division of the Text . . . . . 291

ARTICLE SOLE: On the created habit of charity, whether it exists, and in what manner it can be loved and cognized

Question 1: Whether besides uncreated Charity there ought to be posited a created habit of charity? . . . . 292

Question 2: Whether charity is to be loved out of charity? . . 296

Question 3: Whether anyone can know with certitude, that he is in charity? . . . . . 298

Question 4: Whether charity is cognizable in the universal, even by one not having it? . . . 300

DOUBTS I-VII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 304

PART II

Division of the Text . . . . . 307

ARTICLE SOLE: On the augment of charity

Question 1: Whether charity can be increased according to its substance? . . . . . 307

Question 2: In what manner charity is increased? . . . 310

Question 3: Whether charity can be diminished? . . . . 313

Question 4: Whether charity has a terminus in its augment? 316

DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 318

DISTINCTION XVIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 319

Division of the Text . . . . . 322

ARTICLE SOLE: On the property of the Holy Spirit, whereby His is a gift

Question 1: Whether the Holy Spirit is the Gift, in which all other gifts are granted? . . . . 323

Question 2: Whether the Holy Spirit is the a gift from eternity, or in time? . . . . . 325

Question 3: Whether there is more fittingly said of the Holy Spirit “gift” than “given”? . . 326

Question 4: Whether “gift” is an essential or a personal and proper name of the Holy Spirit? . . . . . 328

Question 5: Whether “gift” or “grantability” is a distinctive property of the Holy Spirit? . . . 329

Question 6: Whether the Holy Spirit by reason of His grantability can be said to be “our Spirit”? . . 332

DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter. . . . . 333

DISTINCTION XIX

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 335

PART I

Division of the Text . . . . . 341

ARTICLE SOLE: On the equality of the Divine Persons and its properties

Question 1: Whether equality is to be posited among the divine? . . . . . 342

Question 2: Whether among the divine there is a most high equality? . . . . . 344

Question 3: Whether the equality of the Divine Persons is reciprocal? . . . . . 346

Question 4: Whether among the divine there is equality with circumincession? . . . . . 347

DOUBTS I-XI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 350

PART II

Division of the Text . . . . . 354

ARTICLE SOLE: That from God there ought to be excluded all reckonings of inequality

Question 1: Whether among the divine there is to be posited an integral whole? . . . . . 355

Question 2: Whether among the divine there can be posited a universal whole? . . . . . 357

Question 3: Whether among the Divine Persons there can be posited a material principle? . . . . 360

Question 4: Whether among the divine there can be posited a difference according to number? . . 362

DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 365

DISTINCTION XX

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 366

Division of the Text . . . . . 368

ARTICLE I: On the adequation of power among the divine

Question 1: Whether among the Divine Persons there is equal power as much as regards (its) extension to possibles? . . . . . 368

Question 2: Whether among the Divine Persons there is equality as much as regards the intensity of power? . . . . . 370

ARTICLE II: On order among the divine

Question 1: Whether among the divine there is a reckoning of order? . . . . . 372

Question 2: Whether among the divine there is an order of nature? . . . . . 373

DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 375

DISTINCTION XXI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 377

Division of the Text . . . . . 378

ARTICLE I: On exclusive sayings added to a substantial term

Question 1: Whether there is said in a true manner: “God alone is the Father”? . . . . . 379

Question 2: Whether an exclusive saying can be truly added to a substantial term on the part of the predicate? . . . . . 381

ARTICLE II: On exclusive sayings added to a relative term

Question 1: Whether the exclusive saying “solus” is truly added to a personal term in respect to a proper predicate? . . . . . 383

Question 2: Whether the exclusive saying “solus” is truly added to a personal term in respect to a common predicate? . . . . . 385

DOUBTS I-III on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 387

DISTINCTION XXII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 388

Division of the Text . . . . . 389

ARTICLE SOLE: On the Divine Names

Question 1: Whether God is nameable? . . . . . 390

Question 2: Whether God has only one Name, or more? . . 392

Question 3: Whether all Divine Names are said in a transferred manner? . . . . . 394

Question 4: Whether all names said of God are said according to substance? . . . . . 397

DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter — with The Five Rules on the Names of God” . . . . 399

DISTINCTION XXIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 401

Division of the Text . . . . . 404

ARTICLE I: On the transferal of the names "person", "substance" and "essence" to the divine
 Question 1: Whether the name for 'person' has been fittingly transferred to the divine? . . . . . 404
 Question 2: Whether among the divine the name for 'substance' and 'subsistence' is fittingly to be used? . . . . . 406
 Question 3: Whether the name for 'essence' is fittingly employed among the divine; moreover, there is asked concerning the difference of the names "essence", "subsistence", "substance" and "person"? . . . . . 408
 ARTICLE II: On the numbering of the four Names
 Question 1: Whether among the divine there can be said to be many "substances"? . . . . . 411
 Question 2: Whether among the divine there can be numbered many "essences"? . . . . . 413
 Question 3: Whether in a Catholic manner we can say that there are "many Gods"? . . . . . 414
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter — with a Note to the Readers from the Editors. . . . . 416

DISTINCTION XXIV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 418
 Division of the Text . . . . . 419
 ARTICLE I: On the numeral and partitive term "one"
 Question 1: Whether this name "one" is said positively, and/or privatively, among the divine? . . . . . 420
 Question 2: Whether "one" among the divine is said according to substance, or whether according to relation? . . . . . 423
 ARTICLE II: On purely numeral names
 Question 1: Whether purely numeral names among the divine are said positively, or privatively? . . . . . 425
 Question 2: Whether numeral names among the divine are said according to substance, or according to relation? . . . . . 426
 ARTICLE III: On the name "triune" and "trinity"
 Question 1: Whether names, which signify at the same time 'one' and 'number', convey a unity? . . . . . 428
 Question 2: Whether the unity, which the names, "Trinity" and "Triune", convey, is a unity of essence, or of supposit? . . . . . 430
 NOTES on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 431

DISTINCTION XXV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 431
 Division of the Text . . . . . 434
 ARTICLE I: On the quiddity of the name "person"
 Question 1: Whether the name "person" among the divine is said according to substance, or whether it is said according to relation? . . . . . 435
 Question 2: Whether "person" has been rightly defined by Boethius, as that which is an individual substance of a rational nature, and whether this reckoning befits the Divine Persons? . . . . . 439
 ARTICLE II: On the commonality of the name "person"
 Question 1: Whether the name "person" is common to the uncreated Persons? . . . . . 442
 Question 2: Whether the name for 'person', said of created and uncreated persons, is a common univocal term? . . . . . 444
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 445

DISTINCTION XXVI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 447
 Division of the Text . . . . . 450
 ARTICLE SOLE: On the properties in general
 Question 1: Whether among the divine there are to be posited properties for the Persons? . . . . . 454
 Question 2: What are properties of the Persons among the divine? . . . . . 455
 Question 3: Whether the act of the personal properties is to distinguish the Hypostases, or to show that They are distinct? . . . . . 456
 Question 4: How many personal properties are there among the divine? . . . . . 460
 DOUBTS I-X on the text of Master Peter. . . . . 462

DISTINCTION XXVII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 464
PART I
 Division of the Text . . . . . 466
 ARTICLE SOLE: On the property of the paternity, on the abstraction of the properties, and on the certitude of this doctrine
 Question 1: Whether 'to be the Father' and 'to generate' is one and the same notion? . . . . . 467
 Question 2: Whether the generation is the reason for the paternity, or the other way around? . . . . . 468
 Question 3: Whether the properties can be abstracted from the Divine Persons? . . . . . 475
 Question 4: Whether it is licit to opine in a contrary manner concerning the notions or properties? . . . . . 477
 DOUBTS I- V on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 479

PART II

Division of the Text . . . . . 480
 ARTICLE SOLE: On the name for a word
 Question 1: Whether "word" is said essentially, or notionally among the divine? . . . . . 481
 Question 2: Whether the "Eternal Word" connotes anything on the part of a creature? . . . . . 484
 Question 3: What is the comparison of the Word to wisdom or knowledge? . . . . . 487
 Question 4: Whether the name for a word has been rightly transferred to the divine? . . . . . 488
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 491

DISTINCTION XXVIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 492
 Division of the Text . . . . . 495
 ARTICLE SOLE: On the innascibility and improcessibility
 Question 1: Whether the name "unbegotten" or "innascibility" is said according to substance, and/or relation? . . . . . 496
 Question 2: Whether the innascibility and the paternity convey the same relation? . . . . . 499
 Question 3: Whether the innascibility, or the paternity is the personal property of the Father? . . . . . 501

- Question 4: Whether improcessibility just as innascibility also means a notion in the Father? . . . . 502
DOUBTS I-V on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 504

DISTINCTION XXIX

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 506
Division of the Text . . . . . 507

ARTICLE I: On principium as much as regards the multiplicity of its meaning

- Question 1: Whether the name, principium, among the divine can be accepted personally or notionally? . . . . . 508
Question 2: Whether this name, principium, if taken essentially and notionally, is said univocally, or equivocally? . . . . . 510

ARTICLE II: On principium as much as regards the unity of its meaning

- Question 1: Whether the Father and the Son can be said to be “the one principle” of the Holy Spirit? . 512
Question 2: Whether the Father and the Son can be said to be “the one spirator”, and or even “the same principle” of the Holy Spirit? . . . 515
DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 516

DISTINCTION XXX

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 519
Division of the Text . . . . . 520

ARTICLE SOLE: On those names which are said of God on account of time

- Question 1: Whether anything is said of God on account of time? . . . . . 521
Question 2: Whether the names, which are said of God on account of time, are said per se, and/or per accidens? . . . . . 523
Question 3: Whether the names, which are said of God on account of time, convey a real relation in God? . . . . . 524
DOUBTS I-V on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 527

DISTINCTION XXXI

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 529

PART I

- Division of the Text . . . . . 532
ARTICLE SOLE: On the names “similar” and “equal”

- Question 1: Whether equality and similitude are said of God positively and/or privatively? . . 533
Question 2: Whether “equality” and “similitude” among the divine are said according to substance, or according to relation? . . . . . 534
Question 3: Whether “equal” and “similar” are said among the divine according to a mutual relation? . . 537
DOUBTS I-III on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 539

PART II

- Division of the Text . . . . . 538
ARTICLE I: On St. Hilary’s appropriation

- Question 1: Whether there is said to be an image among the divine according to substance, or according to relation? . . . 539
Question 2: Whether “image” among the divine is properly said of the Son? . . . . . 541
Question 3: For what reason is “eternity” appropriated to the Father, “sightliness” to the Image, and “use” to the Gift? . . . . . 543

ARTICLE II: On St. Augustine’s appropriation

- Question 1: Whether God can be said to be “one” with a creature? . . . . . 545
Question 2: Whether one creature with another can be said (to be) “one” simply? . . . . 546
Question 3: By what reckoning is “unity” appropriated to the Father, “equality” to the Son, “concord” to the Holy Spirit? . . . . . 548
DOUBTS I-VIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 549

DISTINCTION XXXII

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 552
Division of the Text . . . . . 555

ARTICLE I: On the expression: “the Father and the Son love Themselves by the Holy Spirit.”

- Question 1: Whether the Father and the Son love Themselves by the Holy Spirit? . . . . . 556
Question 2: In what habitude is that ablative construed, if there be said: “the Father and the Son love Themselves by the Holy Spirit”? . . . . 559

ARTICLE II: On the expression: “the Father is wise by begotten Wisdom”, on the other: “the Father is powerful by the Virtue, which He begot”

- Question 1: Whether there can be rightly said: “the Father is wise by begotten Wisdom”? . . . . . 561
Question 2: Whether there can be rightly said: “the Father is powerful by the Power or Virtue, which He begot”? . . . . . 563
DOUBTS I-VII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 565

DISTINCTION XXXIII

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 567
Division of the Text . . . . . 570

ARTICLE SOLE: On the diverse comparisons of a property

- Question 1: Whether a property is a Person? . . . . . 571
Question 2: Whether a property is the Essence? . . . . 574
Question 3: Whether a notion is predicated of a notion? . . 576
Question 4: Whether the same property can be denominatively predicated of itself? . . . 579
DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 580

DISTINCTION XXXIV

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 582
Division of the Text . . . . . 585

ARTICLE SOLE: On the comparison of a Person to the Nature and on appropriation and transference

- Question 1: Whether among the divine a Thing of the Nature adds upon the Nature? . . 586
Question 2: Whether among the divine a Person is predicated of the Nature & the Nature of a Person? . . 589
Question 3: Whether among the divine there is a positing of appropriated names? . . . 592
Question 4: Whether there is a transference of names? . . 593
DOUBTS I-VII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 594

DISTINCTION XXXV

- The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 597
Division of the Text . . . . . 599

ARTICLE SOLE: On ideas

- Question 1: Whether ideas are to be posited in God? . 600
Question 2: Whether among ideas there is a plurality according to thing? . . . . . 605

Question 3: Whether among ideas there is a plurality according to a reckoning? . . . . . 607
 Question 4: Whether ideas are plurified through a comparison to the ideated, to the extent that these are diverse in species, and/or in the individual? . 609
 Question 5: Whether ideas in God are finite in number, or infinite? . . . . . 611
 Question 6: Whether ideas have an order? . . . . . 613
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 614

DISTINCTION XXXVI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 617
 Division of the Text . . . . . 619
     ARTICLE I: On the existence of things in God
 Question 1: Whether things were in God from eternity? . . . 620
 Question 2: Whether things are in God according to a reckoning of essence, and/or of person? . . 621
     ARTICLE II: On the manner, in which things exist in God
 Question 1: Whether all are life in God? . . . . . 623
 Question 2: Whether things have “being” more truly in God than in their own genus? . . . . . 625
     ARTICLE III: On the number or generality of the existence, which things have in God
 Question 1: Whether evil things are in God? . . . . . 626
 Question 2: Whether imperfect things are in God? . . . 628
 DOUBTS I-IV on the Text of Master Peter . . . . . 630

DISTINCTION XXXVII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 632
     PART I
 Division of the Text . . . . . 637
     ARTICLE I: Wherefore does it befit God to be everywhere?
 Question 1: Whether God is in all things? . . . . . 638
 Question 2: Whether God is in all places? . . . . . 640
     ARTICLE II: It is proper to God to be everywhere
 Question 1: Whether ‘to be everywhere’ befits God alone? . 642
 Question 2: Whether ‘to be everywhere’ befits God from eternity? . . . . . 644
     ARTICLE III: In what kind of manner is God in things?
 Question 1: Whether God is equally in all things? . . . . 646
 Question 2: In what manners is God said to be in things? . . 648
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 649

PART II

Division of the Text . . . . . 651
     ARTICLE I: On the incircumscribibility of God
 Question 1: Whether God belongs to a place? . . . . . 652
 Question 2: Whether God is able to change according to place? . . . . . 654
 Question 3: Whether God is separable from every place and/or is outside of every place? . 655
     ARTICLE II: On the mutability of the Angels through place
 Question 1: Whether an Angel can move locally without a body? . . . . . 657
 Question 2: Whether an Angel moves through a medium? . . 659
 Question 3: Whether an Angel passes through a medium by a sudden movement, and/or by a successive one? . . . . . 662
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 664

DISTINCTION XXXVIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 666

Division of the Text . . . . . 668
     ARTICLE I: On the causality of the Divine Foreknowledge
 Question 1: Whether the Divine Foreknowledge is the cause of things . . . . . 669
 Question 2: Whether the Divine Foreknowledge is caused by things . . . . . 671
     ARTICLE II: On the Divine Foreknowledge as much as regards the reckoning of Its necessity
 Question 1: Whether God’s Foreknowledge imposes a necessity upon the things foreknown. . 674
 Question 2: Whether God necessarily foreknows those which He foreknows . . . . . 677
 DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 680

DISTINCTION XXXIX

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 682
 Division of the Text . . . . . 684
     ARTICLE I: On the perfection of the Divine Knowledge as much as regards the number of cognizables
 Question 1: Whether God cognizes those other than Himself? . . . . . 684
 Question 2: Whether God cognizes all others than Himself? . . . . . 688
 Question 3: Whether God can know more than He knows? . . . . . 690
     ARTICLE II: On the manner of the Divine Cognition
 Question 1: Whether God cognizes Himself and those other than Himself in the same manner? . . . 692
 Question 2: Whether God cognizes mutables immutably? . 693
 Question 3: Whether God cognizes each and every thing presently? . . . . . 695
 DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 698

DISTINCTION XL

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 699
 Division of the Text . . . . . 701
     ARTICLE I: On predestination as much as regards its entity
 Question 1: Whether predestination is something eternal, or temporal? . . . . . 702
 Question 2: Whether predestination is God’s Knowledge, or Will? . . . . . 704

ARTICLE II: On predestination as much as regards its necessity

Question 1: Whether predestination infers the necessity of salvation? . . . . . 706
 Question 2: Whether predestination posits a certitude in the outcome? . . . . . 711

ARTICLE III: On the Divine election

Question 1: Whether election is in God from eternity, or on account of time? . . . . . 714
 Question 2: Whether election is the same as predestination? 716

ARTICLE IV: On reprobation and, in particular, on obduration

Question 1: Whether obduration is a punishment, or a fault? . . . . . 717
 Question 2: Whether obduration is from God? . . . . . 719
 DOUBTS I-VIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . . 722

DISTINCTION XLI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . . 725
 Division of the Text . . . . . 727

ARTICLE I: On the cause of Divine predestination
Question 1: Whether predestination and/or reprobation have in us a meritorious cause? . . . . .	728
Question 2: Whether predestination and reprobation have in God a motive reason? . . . . .	734
ARTICLE II: On the sempiternity of the Divine Cognition
Question 1: Whether God cognizes things through the manner of complexion? . . . . .	736
Question 2: Whether the enunciabiles, which God cognizes once, He always cognizes? . . . . .	738
DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	741

DISTINCTION XLII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	743
Division of the Text . . . . .	745
ARTICLE SOLE: On the Divine Power in comparison to the possibles, which It can do
Question 1: Whether God can work anything other than Himself? . . . . .	746
Question 2: Whether God can do everything which a created agent can do? . . . . .	748
Question 3: Whether God can do all those whatsoever, which are impossible for a created agent? . . . . .	750
Question 4: Whether the “simply possible” is said according to superior causes, or inferior ones? . . . . .	756
DOUBTS I-VI on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	759

DISTINCTION XLIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	761
Division of the Text . . . . .	763
ARTICLE SOLE: On the infinity of the Divine Power
Question 1: Whether God’s Power, according to which It is of this kind, is infinite? . . . . .	764
Question 2: Whether the Divine Essence is infinite? . . . . .	768
Question 3: Whether the Divine Power is able unto an effect infinite in act? . . . . .	771
Question 4: Whether the reason for the Divine Power extends itself to things infinite? . . . . .	774
DOUBTS I-VII on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	776

DISTINCTION XLIV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	779
Division of the Text . . . . .	780

ARTICLE I: On the possibility of a better world
Question 1: Whether God could make a better world regarding the substance of its integrating parts? . . . . .	781
Question 2: Whether the world could be made better as much as regards the properties of its integrating parts? . . . . .	783
Question 3: Whether God could make the world better as much as regards the order of its parts? . . . . .	785
Question 4: Whether God could make the world more ancient? . . . . .	787

ARTICLE II: On the immutability of the Divine Power
Question SOLE: Whether what God can do once, He can do always? . . . . .	790
DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	792

DISTINCTION XLV

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	794
---	-----

Division of the Text . . . . .	797
ARTICLE I: On the Divine Will, as much as regards Its quiddity
Question 1: Whether in God there is a positing of a will? . . . . .	798
Question 2: Whether God is said to be “omnivolent”, just as He is said to be “omniscient” and “omnipotent”? . . . . .	800
ARTICLE II: On God’s Will, as much as regards Its causality
Question 1: Whether God’s Will is the Cause of things in general? . . . . .	803
Question 2: Whether God’s Will is the First and Immediate Cause? . . . . .	806
ARTICLE III: On the Divine Will, as much as regards Its reckoning of being signified
Question 1: Whether the Divine Will is fittingly divided into the will of a sign and the Will of good pleasure? . . . . .	808
Question 2: On the number and sufficiency of the signs of the Divine Will? . . . . .	810
DOUBTS I-XI on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	811

DISTINCTION XLVI

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	814
Division of the Text . . . . .	818
ARTICLE SOLE: On the Will of God in respect of the salvation of all, and in respect of evil
Question 1: Whether God wills that all men come to be saved by the Will of His Good Pleasure? . . . . .	819
Question 2: Whether God wills evils to come to be? . . . . .	822
Question 3: Whether it is good that evils come to be? . . . . .	825
Question 4: Whether it is true that evils come to be? . . . . .	827
Question 5: Whether evil is ordainable by the Will of God? . . . . .	830
Question 6: Whether evil concerns the complement of the universe? . . . . .	832
DOUBTS I-VIII on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	834

DISTINCTION XLVII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	837
Division of the Text . . . . .	838
ARTICLE SOLE: On the efficacy of the Divine Will
Question 1: Whether the Will of God’s Good Pleasure can be impeded? . . . . .	839
Question 2: Whether one can work against the will of a sign? . . . . .	842
Question 3: Whether God ought to permit evils? . . . . .	843
Question 4: Whether God can precept evils? . . . . .	845
DOUBTS I-V on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	847

DISTINCTION XLVIII

The Text of Master Peter . . . . .	849
Division of the Text . . . . .	850
ARTICLE I: On the conformity of our will in regard to its quiddity
Question 1: Whether it is possible, that our will be conformed to the Divine Will? . . . . .	851
Question 2: Whether the conformity of our will to the Divine Will makes it just? . . . . .	853
ARTICLE II: On the conformity of our will as much as regards obligation
Question 1: Whether we are bound to conform our will to the Divine Will in the reason for willing? . . . . .	855
Question 2: Whether we are bound to conform our will to the Divine Will in the (thing) willed? . . . . .	857
DOUBTS I-IV on the text of Master Peter . . . . .	860

Glorious to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever,
and unto the Ages of ages. Amen!